SCHOOL BOOKS.—Tracy's Commercial and Mechanical and Elementary Arithmetics and Smith's Practical Arithmetic can be found at Mr. Davidson's on Third and First streets, near Market.

A little colored boy disappeared very mysteriously from Cincinnati last week. It is supposed that he was kidnapped, and that a police officer named Roberts had a hand in it.

We are requested to say that the sale at Mr. Frank Johnson's is postponed until further notice.

ABUNDANCE OF WHEAT.—The Richmond (Va.) Penny Post speaks of the immense amount of wheat now in the various railroad depots. Of course, it is literally overflowing with the grain, and has on board thirty-four vessels, and all the ammunition necessary for a naval engagement.

The Mexican steamship Santa Anna will leave New York on Saturday morning, and will sail several days sooner to attack her at sea.

The officers and crew of both vessels are American. The other vessels of Gov. Alvarado consist of a ship, brig, and schooner—one said to be fitting out privately.

There is no doubt that the money is to be used for the capture of the Santa Anna.

The Democrats of Carrollton, Pa., met at their annual meeting in New York on an expedition against the Mexican Government.

Three or four vessels are named, including the steamer Ben Franklin, which has on board thirty-four vessels, and all the ammunition necessary for a naval engagement.

THE BOY.—Don't forget to give Hostetler's celebrated Stomach Bitter a trial if your system is say way disorganized. Dyspepsis and persons that are bilious should be all means avail themselves of them. These bitters have met with a rapid sale ever since they were first introduced in this city, which is the best evidence of their efficacy.

Sold at the agency, under the Southern Bank, by Dr. Englehardt, hotel bars, etc., throughout the city.

CINCINNATI, September 5.—The third anniversary of the death of Gen. Narciso Lopez, and his compatriots, was celebrated on Friday evening last in New York by a general gathering of foreigners, members of the Cuban, French, Italian, German, Polish, and Hungarian societies. There were about five hundred persons present, among them several ladies.

NATIONAL.—U. S. slop of war Saratoga, commander W. S. Walker, from the East Indies, via Honolulu, about May 22, arrived at Boston on Friday.

HOMECOMING.—Dr. McDonald, of Mount Adams, was barbarously murdered by one of his own negroes on Friday night. Great excitement existed in that section, and a meeting of the citizens was held to determine whether, as a matter of example, to execute summary vengeance on the murderer or await the slow process of the law.

SERIOUS RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A serious accident occurred Monday week in the explosion of the boiler of the locomotive attached to the Winchester train on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad. It caused the death of one man, the second of three killed in the accident, and resulted in the injury of four men. Mr. James Rogers, the engineer, was killed; Benjamin R. Barker, fireman, and Henry Seary, a track-layer, were badly scalded, the latter having a broken leg. The wood-passer, name unknown, was also scalded, but not seriously.

THE FAIR.—Let our citizens remember, that the grand fair for the benefit of disabled soldiers opens at the Old Field on Hall-tonight. There will be present such a galaxy of beauty as has seldom been seen here or anywhere else. The arrangements are most perfect.

DR. GREENOUGH.—We erred yesterday in designating the time for the first lecture of this gentleman. It is given at Concert Hall, on Fifth street, to-night, and is free.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. Wm. Milton, who has for sale manufactured tobacco.

THE FIRE.—The fire about daylight yesterday morning destroyed two one-story frame houses on the point, belonging to Mr. Vanclies.

THE Washington Star has learned, from headquarters, that the Secretary of the Interior is about to restore to "market" all the land withheld from sale on account of the contemplated railroads running through or over them, except, of course, in cases where Congress had actually made the grants for railroad purposes.

A large body of very desirable land will then be available to private parties to sell at prices ranging up to $1 per acre.

This is important to be speedily made known by way of preventing special action in them.

AN IMPORTANT MATTER.—We have heard it from our reliable lending merchants, that some notes ought to be paid to the Indians for banks. It is known that the notes of these banks are gradually thrown out of circulation at Cincinnati. These banks are as well secured, as any in the country, and we have no doubt that if these notes are countenanced here it will greatly benefit Louisville. Would it not be well to have a meeting called of the Chamber of Commerce to take this matter into consideration?

Mrs. Madeline Adolph is overjoyed with visitors from morning till night, and she gives universal satisfaction.

AFFAIRS.—Last evening an Irishman, who gave the name of Patrick, received five shots in the head, and was left for dead by John Conway, who had brought to the city a flatboat load of hounds. It appears that Conway had engaged the Irishman up the river to bring the boat to this point. When an 18-mile island, the boat was rounded to in consequence of a storm, and during the temporary absence of Conway, Pat left and came to this city. Day before yesterday the boat arrived and Patrick was taken to the hospital, but it is hardly possible that he will survive the injuries, except in the left, but the officers are in full force.

Night before last an affray occurred on the corner of Green and First streets, in which a coal-hoist man named Peasear inflicted a dangerous wound on Ed. Peasear. From his attending physician we learn that there is little hope for his recovery.

THEatre.—A fine hall is presented at the theatre to-night. See advertisement.

WE learn that the water is now lower than it has been since the construction of the Louisville and Portland canal. Last evening there were only 19 inches water in the canal.
